FALL / WINTER 2020

Special situations require special measures

The corona virus overwhelmed us all and turned our entire everyday life upside down. In order to protect ourselves, social distancing has been enacted, events were canceled and countless shops were closed. Now it is time to slowly and carefully return to normality. That is why wearing masks in public has become mandatory in many places.

In order to not go without a good dose of style, our everyday masks are now available as a striking and helpful accessory. We can also offer individual products. Please feel free to contact us.
